2019 WORKSAFE COMMUNITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

AFL Outer East would like to thank the Players, Coaches, Support Staff & Clubs who represented the Outer East at the weekend against Bendigo.

The results collectively were disappointing and as a region we will look to respond strongly in 2020. Bendigo across all games were outstanding and highlighted the level we are required to be at in the upper echelon of the community championships. There is no doubt that we have the talent to be competing at this level of the championships, but against the elite competitions in the state, we have many areas of improvement across our program that we will need to address over the next 12 months.

Congratulations to our best on grounds on the weekend, who were individually outstanding Seniors – Brandon Osborne (Cranbourne).

Open Netball – Stephanie McNay (Seville).

Our attention now shifts to Junior Interleague with our male and female teams representing us across the metropolitan region in May and June.

HOW INCLUSIVE IS YOUR CLUB?

VicHealth research shows that nearly half of women aged 25 and over find sporting clubs intimidating. Many women are too afraid to try a new activity because they're afraid of being judged.

In 2015, Sport England launched a game-changing campaign to empower women to become more physically active – regardless of their ability or body shape.

The campaign inspired a massive 2.8 million women to try (or get back into) fitness and sport. After seeing the success of that campaign, VicHealth was determined to do the same for the women of Victoria.

The This Girl Can – Victoria campaign launched in 2018 and has since celebrated and inspired thousands of women to play sport across the state.

This Girl Can – Victoria supports gender equality by challenging traditional gender roles and by celebrating women who are fit and strong.

We want to change the fact that women are too afraid to try a new activity because they're afraid of being judged. We want to empower all women to get active and get involved in footy – regardless of their background, age, body shape or ability.

Tell us what changes your club has made to create a welcoming and inclusive environment for women – particularly those who haven't exercised in a while, or who haven't tried your club, facility or activity before.

Tell us in 400 words or less how your club has gone about supporting more women and girls to play footy.

The winning entry will win for their nominated club a $1,000 Footymart voucher to help buy football equipment to support even greater participation at your club.

You may like to think about four key strategies outlined in the 'This Girl Can Victoria – Helping Women and Girls Get Active' guide and how your club has implemented these. The guide can be found via: www.thisgirlcan.com.au.

Entries close May 31, 2019.

Congratulations to Brendan Small who officiated in his 200th game last weekend. Brendan has been one of our top goal umpires for a number of years and returned to umpiring last season after the birth of his first child. Brendan will be enjoying the introduction of the new clubs from a travelling prospective and we wish you all the best for the remainder of this season and beyond.

It is great to welcome back Emily Jose to umpiring today, as she only arrived back in the country this week after spending the past 6 months in the States as part of her University course.

Well done to Ray Dobby who will umpire his first Premier Division game today. Ray leaves no stone unturned when it comes to his umpiring, and his fitness and conditioning are a credit to the way he prepares himself and I'm sure he would have no trouble in getting a kick, if he wasn't blowing the whistle.

It was also terrific to see our resident paramedic Emma Mickle back running the boundary at Yarra Junction last Saturday. Unfortunately Emma doesn't get the chance to do many games, because of her work commitments these days, but we hope to see you again throughout the season.

Great to hear that Bruce Porter has recovered from his lower back injury and will be seen running around in the field again, plus backing up in the goals.

Junior umpiring numbers continue to grow each week as a result of Allan's school academy sessions or mates recruiting other mates into umpiring, through the enticement that there is the opportunity to earn some decent money in a friendly, supportive and character building environment.

Thank you to our sponsors YV Financial Services and Yileena Park Winery for their continued support of the Yarra Ranges Umpires in 2019.

Have a great day and enjoy the footy & netball. YRUA.

It was a dirty old day for the AFL Outer East in Bendigo as we went down in all four of the AFL Victoria Worksafe Community Championship clashes with the Bendigo Football Netball League. So rather than talk anymore about that let's review all the action from the ATC Traffic Division Two.

It's the Footy Review.

1. Powelltown's Punch

Powelltown celebrated its 100 year anniversary in style on Saturday claiming its third win of the season by 29 points over Alexandra, lifting the Towners back into the top five in the process.

Powelltown kicked five goals to two in the second term to hold a three goal lead at the main break, before edging further away from the Rebels in the second half in what was a free flowing game with 17 goal kickers across the two sides.

2018 Team of the Year Full Back Jack Garthwaite kicked five majors for the hosts, whilst Matthew Lord continued his early season form appearing in the best players once again.

Free flowing football seems to suit the Towners. They currently sit fifth on the table with a 3-2 record having lost to Seville and Gembrook-Cockatoo. They kicked their highest score for the season on the weekend (121) and have passed the elusive ton three times in 2019. Their two losses have come when neither side has kicked more than 12 goals.

They've got eight players with four or more goals for the season, with four players (Dean Roy, Jack Garthwaite, James Rohan and Luke Miller) sitting on eight goals a piece, suggesting they have one of the most versatile and potent forward lines in the division. Powelltown's home patch is also the highest scoring ground across the AFL Outer East's (nee Yarra Ranges) history.

This weekend they come up against the undefeated Kinglake. The Lakers have been dominant in front of goal averaging over 139 points a game thus far this season with Chris Horman and new coach Andrew Fairchild booting 43 goals between them to date.

Powelltown have signalled their intentions - they want to score and they want to score big. If the Lakers want to play that way too, they might be falling straight in the Towners trap.

2. Blues Battle

In the 2018 Division Two Grand Final Re-Match, Yarra Junction blasted an undermanned Seville away with a massive 88 point win at home.

The reigning premier had 42 scoring shots as they finished 27.15(177) with Samuel Morton and David Johnson both booting five goals. This bag being Morton's third bag of five in a row. Tyson Wheeler, Cameron Hoare and Jake Blacker all kicked three majors, whilst Leigh Hoffman finished with two in a best afield performance as the Eagles won their third match of the season to sit second on the ladder.

On the other side of the coin sit Seville, who are currently sitting in fourth position, level with Powelltown, Alexandra and Gembrook-Cockatoo on three wins. Worryingly for the Blues two of those three wins have come against the winless Yea and Thornton Eildon.

They are missing the Cecere brothers as well as midfielder Justin Meyers and ruckman Stuart Williams to name just a few. This makes last seasons runners up vulnerable over the next month - and it's a big month of fixtures.

They face the aforementioned Alexandra and Gembrook-Cockatoo over the next fortnight before the bye and a clash with the ladder leaders Kinglake. Worst case scenario they head into the second half of the season with a 3 and 5 record. Best case of course sees them sitting 6 and 2. But with their current form and injury problems the Blues will not be getting ahead of themselves, they'll be content with one win from the next three and over the moon with two.

The blessing in disguise is that these injuries mean that more senior games will be played by players further down the list, and in the long run this will benefit the club massively.

The next month won't make or break Seville - but it'll definitely have a say in how it's 2019 pans out.

3. Love Local Footy

The AFL have been desperately trying to increase the scoring levels and aesthetic appeal of the professional game for the past decade. They've changed almost every rule in the book and this season bought in two 'radical' changes with the 6-6-6 and new kick in rules. They were meant to increase scoring, but so far the consensus is they haven't quite worked just ask Adelaide coach Don Pyke.

It was Round Nine of the AFL this weekend and the average match score was 164.7 points per game.

Only one player kicked a bag of five (Jeremy Finlayson - Greater Western Sydney) and his teammate Jeremy Cameron leads the Coleman Medal comfortably despite having gone goalless for two weeks.

By comparison the ATC Traffic Division Two average match total on the weekend was 205.2 points per game.

Three players (David Johnson (Yarra Junction), Sam Morton (Yarra Junction) and Jack Garthwaite (Powelltown)) kicked a bag of five. Seville's Nathan O'Keefe kicked six goals in a losing side, Yarra Glen's Jiembra Smith bootied eight goals in his sides win and Andrew Fairchild kicked 12 majors against Thornton Eildon for the top of the table Kinglake.

There's no debating the skill level the players in the AFL have, in full flight they are truly a spectacle to admire, only problem is they're really in full flight.

So next time you've got a craving for a power forward kicking a big bag of goals or an end to end thriller, put your AFL membership back in the draw and head down to the local footy.
